Dear Sir.

The above-identified application became abandoned, in error, after the Patent Office never replied to a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) mailed by the Applicant on May 28, 2002.

Said RCE was submitted, along with an Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) and a Deletion of Inventors Request, in response to the Notice of Allowance mailed on February 26, 2002. The Patent Office never responded to the RCE. Applicant transmitted a Status Inquiry to the PTO on March 22, 2005. The PTO did not respond to this status inquiry. On October 11, 2005, Applicant transmitted a second status inquiry. As of January 31, 2006, the PTO had not responded to the status inquiry. On that date, the Applicant's attorney's secretary spoke with a representative of the Customer Service Office of the Office of Patent Publication, who indicated that the application was ready for issuing. On February 27, 2006, the Patent Office sent a Status Letter in response to the Status Inquiry of October 11, 2005. This Status Letter also indicated that the application was ready for issuing. Then on March 20, 2006, the Patent Office sent a Notice of Abandonment, which inexplicably said that Applicant had never responded to the Notice of Allowance of February 26, 2002.

Applicant did in fact respond to said Notice of Allowance with the aforementioned RCE on May 28, 2002. It is clear that the PTO did receive this RCE. The transaction history available on the PTO's website contains an entry dated June 3, 2002, which reads, "Workflow - Request for RCE - Begin," and a second entry dated that same day which reads, "Workflow - Request for RCE - Finish." Also, the file history in private PAIR shows that on June 3, 2002, the PTO received both the IDS and the Deletion of Inventors Request that were filed along with the RCE. The copy of the Deletion of Inventors request on private PAIR has notations added thereon by the PTO indicating that it was filed on June, 3, 2002, received in technology center 2800 on June 5, 2002, and entered on July 22, 2005 (more than three years after its receipt). Although private PAIR does not explicitly show the RCE, it is clear from the entry in the transaction history that the RCE was also received. Applicant would also note on July 30, 2004, and again on August 19, 2005, the Examiner sent communications saying that she had considered supplemental IDS's that had been submitted by the Applicant. Applicant is at a loss as to why the Examiner did not take any action on the application when considering these IDS's.

After receiving the Notice of Abandonment, Applicant's attorney called the Examiner to discuss this situation. The Examiner acknowledged that there was an error on the part of the PTO and promised to discuss the matter with her supervisor to determine what to do and get back to Applicant's attorney. Applicant's attorney never heard back from the Examiner. Applicant's attorney made numerous further attempts to call the Examiner, but the Examiner never answered, nor returned, any of these calls. Applicant's attorney then made several attempts to call the Examiner's supervisor, but the Examiner's supervisor likewise never answered, nor returned, any of these calls.

Applicant also notes that on three separate occasions, Applicant has submitted a Change of Correspondence Address to the PTO – first on April 24, 2003, then on September 14, 2004, and finally on September 1, 2005. Yet the PTO continues to send correspondence to the wrong address. The correct address is:

Christopher C. Winslade
McAndrews Held & Malloy, Ltd.
500 West Madison Street
34th Floor
Chicago, IL 60661
Tel: (312) 775-8000
Fax : (312) 775-8100

Applicant notes that the Notice of Abandonment was erroneously sent to 501 West Madison Street.

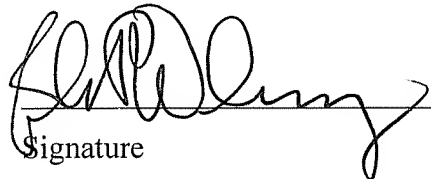

Attached hereto are:

- copies of the RCE, IDS, and Deletion of Inventors request, all originally mailed to the PTO on May 28, 2002.
- copies of the transaction history and private PAIR file history, which show that the PTO did receive the RCE.
- a copy of the Status Letter sent by the PTO on February 27, 2006, indicating that the application was ready for issuing.

APPLICANT HEREBY PETITIONS FOR REVIVAL OF THIS APPLICATION

Applicant submits that no fee is due with this petition since the abandonment is solely the fault of the PTO. Please charge any additional fees or credit overpayment to the deposit account of McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Ltd., Account No. 13-0017.
